NOVEMBER EMPHASIS: END TIMES

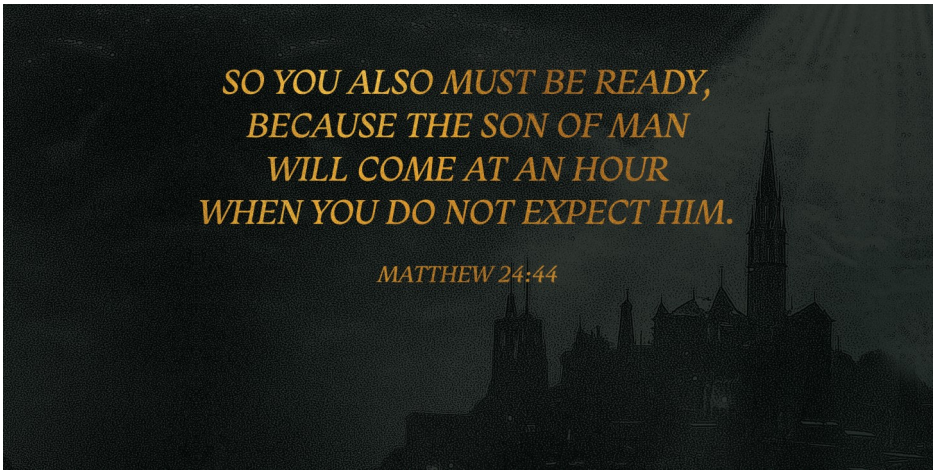

Matthew 24:44
"So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him."

Jesus gave this warning to His disciples as He spoke about His return. No one knows the day or the hour, and He made it clear that He will return when many are not expecting Him. This warning is not meant to stir up fear but to serve as a wake-up call for us. Being ready is not about guessing the time or hour of His return; it is about how we live our lives today: walking faithfully with Him, loving others, forgiving quickly, remaining committed to prayer, upholding God's Word, and maintaining fellowship with other believers.

Life continues to carry uncertainties, and none of us is guaranteed a tomorrow. Whether Christ returns in our lifetime or we meet Him at the end of our days, the call remains the same: be ready now, not later.

A question for reflection: If Jesus were to return today, would He find you ready? Is there anything you need to settle with God or with someone else before the day ends?
