APRIL EMPHASIS: THE GOSPEL (EVANGELISM)

1 Corinthians 15:3-4

“For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures.”

April draws our attention to the Gospel – the good news that stands at the heart of our faith. In 1 Corinthians 15:3–4, Apostle Paul reminds us that the message of Jesus’s sacrificial death, burial and resurrection is “of first importance”. The Gospel is the foundation and focus of our lives. Because Christ died for our sins and rose again in victory, we are forgiven, restored and given living hope. What we have received by grace, we are now entrusted to share with conviction and joy with a world in need of salvation.

Evangelism flows from hearts awakened and empowered by the Holy Spirit. He is the One who prepares lives to receive the message and grants us courage to speak when opportunities arise. As we live out our calling as an Intentional Disciple Making Church (IDMC), this Gospel shapes every step of Equip, Connect, Release and Mentor – forming disciples who know the message clearly, embody it authentically, step out to proclaim it faithfully and guide others to rely on the Spirit’s leading.

Verse of the Month (April)

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was Buried, that he was Raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:3-4

RECOMMENDED READS FOR APRIL

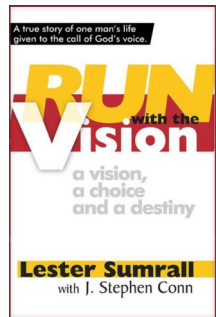

This month, we reflect on the heart of the Christian faith – the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As believers, we are called not only to receive the Good News, but also to share it with others so that many may come to know the saving grace of our Lord.

To encourage us in living out our evangelistic calling, here are three recommended reads from our church library:

Book #1: Run with the Vision (MIS 90)

By Lester Sumrall

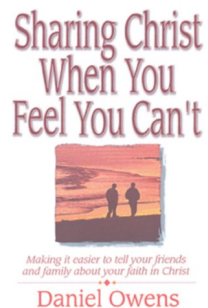

Lester Sumrall shares how God called him to dedicate his life to preaching the gospel. Through personal testimonies and ministry experiences, he encourages Christians to recognise the vision God has placed in their hearts and pursue it with faith, courage and perseverance. It challenges us to not just receive God's calling, but to faithfully "run" with it and impact the world for Christ.

Book #2: Sharing Christ When You Feel You Can't (MIS 13)

By Daniel Owens

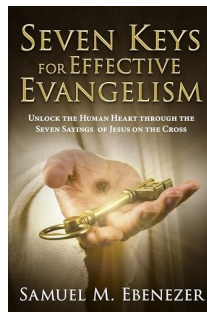

Many Christians feel hesitant or inadequate when it comes to sharing their faith. Evangelist Daniel Owens discusses the importance of being a Christian witness, and presents ways to convey the message of salvation without turning people off. This practical book will help you overcome fear and uncertainty, offering simple and relatable ways to share Christ confidently.

Book #3: Seven Keys for Effective Evangelism (MIS 99)

By Dr Samuel M. Ebenezer

Working for the cause of the Kingdom is of primary importance, and it is equally important that the work we do for God is in alignment with His will. Taking the cue from our Master's own words, the author unpacks the seven sayings that Christ Jesus spoke while on the cross. Discover how each one is a key to help us evangelise effectively!

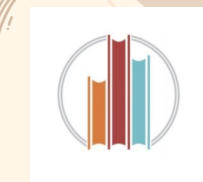

Do visit SJAG Library this month to check out these books and more. May we be encouraged to learn and faithfully share the good news of Christ's death and resurrection with those around us.
